

How it works

Location/ Hours

The Seed Library is located near the Indiana Room on the upper level of the library. It will be available to patrons during the library's regular hours throughout the months of February-October.

2021 PROGRAMS
in Partnership with the Hancock County Master Gardeners

These are virtual programs

Sign up for the Google Meet Code at:
nchcpl.librarycalendar.com

March 22: Seed Starting, 6:30pm

Master Gardeners Rosemary and Connie explain how to start your own seeds and when to transplant them.

April 26: Pricking out Seeds, 6:30pm

Master Gardeners Rosemary and Connie help you prick out seeds that have been winter sown.

May 24: Starting a Cut Flower Garden, 6:30pm

Master Gardener Janet Ridenour teaches you which flowers to plant to have a continuously blooming garden.

June 28: Container Gardening 6:30pm

Master Gardener Darlene Trusty instructs on how to set up a container garden.

August 23: Monarch Butterflies, 6:30pm

Helen Steussy teaches us about the monarch life cycle, their migration routes, and what we can do to protect them.

September 27: Fall Floral Arrangements w/ Gourds, 6:30pm

Master Gardener Rita Miller teaches us how to save money and create our own Fall Floral Arrangements...with gourds!

DONORS

Friends of the Library
Rural King

